December 16, 2022

Dear Parents / Guardians,

As the 2022 calendar year draws to a close and as we prepare our hearts for the birth of our savior Jesus Christ, we as an STA Administration team want to wish you and your family a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! We are proud of the successes that our students and school community have experienced this past year and we look forward with open hearts to the many adventures that await us in 2023. Below are a few of the upcoming events that will be taking place next week. May your family find hope, love, joy and peace this holiday season.
